✦ Follow in the footsteps of the past in Bar-sur-Aube, a town marked by the great Champagne fairs. Strolling through its streets, you are immersed in a unique medieval atmosphere. Do not miss the Saint-Maclou Collegiate Church, a gem that was long closed to the public, which reopens its doors after careful restoration.

✦ After a lunch featuring local flavours, head to Colombey-les-Deux-Églises. The Charles de Gaulle Memorial takes you on an immersive journey through the major events of the 20th century, as seen through the life of the General. The visit continues at La Boiserie, the family home of Charles de Gaulle, a place steeped in history.

SHORT STAY

Troyes, city of expertise

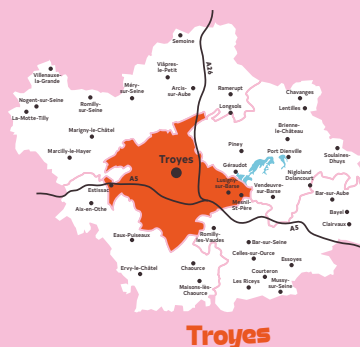

Duration: 2 days / 1 night

Mileage: the entire program is based in Troyes.

Validité : All year round except Mondays and Tuesdays from October to March

From 192€*per person – transport not included

*price based on a group of 25 people subject to changes in rates.

Day 1

The day begins in colour with the City of Stained Glass, where ancient masterpieces or contemporary creations can be admired at eye level.

Right next door, the Cellier Saint-Pierre opens its doors to you: a distillery discreetly nestled at the foot of the cathedral. After the visit, it's time to taste the famous Prunelle liqueur.

Lunch with local flavours, followed by a guided tour of Troyes, the historical capital of Champagne. You will discover its cobbled streets, its colourful half-timbered houses, and its many churches with remarkable stained glass windows.

Free time then allows you to explore at your own pace: a gourmet stroll at the Halles market or a stop at the Taverne des Compagnons to taste beer or mead, like stepping back into the medieval era.

Dinner and overnight stay in a 3-star hotel in the heart of Troyes.

Day 2

In the morning, head to the Museum of the Renaissance in Champagne, then the Museum of Knitting, to delve into the industrial and textile history of the city.

After a convivial lunch in the city centre, you finish your getaway with an astonishing place: the House of Tools and Worker Memories, with its exceptional collection of 12,000 period tools dedicated to manual craftsmanship. A final nod to the intelligence of the hand and the savoir-faire of the people of Aube.
